

Trying a New Stationery Shop?

My Personal Shop Profile & Notes Page

Before I Try a New Shop...

One of my favorite things about stationery is discovering new artists, shops and little paper treasures online ✨

But after a while, they all kinda get jumbled up in my head. So I made these simple shop profile page and wishlist to help me keep track of everything.

I've included the original pastel version and a black and white one that's gentler on printer ink. I've also added example pages of how I use the shop profile page and wishlist page.

Whether you're a careful planner, a curious browser, or someone with seventeen tabs open full of stickers "for later", I hope it helps make your stationery adventures a little more organized and a little more fun 📧

Want More Stationery Printables?

This mini freebie is actually part of a larger 8-page stationery printable pack I made for fellow stationery lovers ✨

It includes:

- happy mail tracking
- shopping lists
- pen pal profiles
- stationery budgeting
- and more!
